

Tax Deadline Is August 20

With only about five weeks remaining to pay delinquent taxes without penalties or to take advantage of the 10-installment plan to pay them, Los Angeles county officials are anticipating a rushing business between now and the deadline, set for Aug. 20.

Payments showed a sharp upturn during June, as compared with June of 1937. Total payments for last month were $304,883, as compared with only $212,866 for June of 1937. The June upturn was not sufficient to overcome last year's lead, however, and the fiscal year closed near $2,000,000 behind last year.

Many more petitions were checked last month than for the corresponding month of 1937, however, indicating that persons are planning to take advantage of the installment plan, a distinct advantage to hard-pressed taxpayers. The 10-payment plan was extended for but four months beyond the previously fixed deadline by the special session of the Legislature last spring. Previous sessions of the Legislature had extended it from year to year, but the deadline was now definitely set for August 20.

Appropriations Total $2877

Among the appropriations voted by the city council Tuesday night were:

For the Chamber of Commerce, the first quarterly grant of $2,000; for new hose for the fire department, $85; for the purchase of a new Chevrolet pickup truck for the Municipal Water department, $700, which includes a trade-in allowance of $175 for an old coupe; for 50 cement meter boxes for the water department, $92.70.

Dairy Cattle Gain in County Noted

The number of dairy cattle continues to increase in Los Angeles county, with dealers and dairymen here having purchased 1,922 during the month of June. This was an increase of 80 over the number purchased during the previous month.

Gardena Anticipates New Postoffice

Gardena expects to see the construction of a new postoffice, costing approximately $75,000, in the near future. A telegram received by Postmaster Ruth B. Sell of that city from Senator William G. McAdoo informed her that the Federal building has been approved. The Postoffice department must select and approve a site for the building.

Unusual Dog Is Dead; Obeyed Phone Orders

REGINA, Sask. (U.P.)—Dinty Devo, Saskatchewan's most unusual dog, is dead. He took orders—and obeyed them—over telephone. His owner left his car and the dog at a garage one day. The dog refused to let the mechanic into the car. Then he thought of phoning the owner. He asked the owner to speak to the dog over the phone. The phone line was extended and pulled out to the car and the owner shouted, "Come home," into the dog's ear. The dog was off like a shot and on his way home.

HOPPER INVASION

Colusa county's range and grain lands are being threatened by an invasion of grasshoppers.

A Camel Bone, 10 Million Years Old

Evidence that a bay once swept east from what is now San Francisco to Nevada is claimed by University of California scientists following discovery of new fossil beds in Contra Costa County, Cal. The beds date back to a period before human life and include bones of strange animals which once roamed the West Coast. Paleontologist King Richey is shown above examining a camel bone, which is 10 million years old.

Cheats Death in Remarkable Landing

Engine trouble forced Marshall George of Burlingame, Cal., to land his low-wing, two-place monoplane on a slope of Twin Peaks, a famed San Francisco promontory, as shown above, but he and his passenger, Miss Afton R. Lewis of San Francisco, escaped without injury.

Sheriff's Squadron Plans Aerial Review At 15th Annual Barbecue

Swing Concert to Aid Legion

Fourteen of the nation's outstanding swing bands, headed by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra, together with famous song-stars of stage, screen and radio, will participate in the third annual Hollywood Swing Concert to be staged Sunday afternoon, July 31, at the Palomar in Los Angeles. Proceeds from the benefit event will be presented to Musicians' Post No. 424 of the American Legion.

In addition to Dorsey, who is currently appearing at the Palomar the list of world-famous orchestras and artists to perform includes Glen Gray and the Casa Loma orchestra, who follow Dorsey at the Palomar starting August 3, Frank Trombar's orchestra, featuring Manny Klein, Kenny Baker, Spud Murphy, Harry Blumstein, Ben Pollack, Skinny Ennis, Floyd Ray, Johnny Green, Wingy Manone, Joe Venuti, Bennie Meroff, Louis Chico, the Hollywood Playboys, the Gall Sisters, and Harriett Wilson and her Shriging Strings.

Joe Sullivan, world famous swing pianist, for whom the first annual Hollywood Swing Concert was staged as a benefit, when he was confined to a sanitarium, will appear as a special guest of the program. He is now completely recovered from his illness and will perform at the piano.

DECORATE FOR FDR

Authorization to expend not to exceed $400 to decorate civic buildings in the Los Angeles area for President Roosevelt's visit Saturday was voted this week by the board of supervisors.

Walteria Woman's Request Makes Official, Reportorial Mouths Water

In requesting a permit Tuesday night to sell plate dinners on Highway 101 at the fork of the old road leading to Walteria, Elizabeth L. Jones of 2481 Madison street, Walteria, left nothing to the imagination of the city council members.

In fact her letter was the most appealing the council had heard in many a month. It made official and reportorial mouths water as councilmen and newshawks digested its contents.

The Walteria resident proposes to sell "cardboard plate chicken or rabbit dinners, complete with one biscuit, assorted vegetables and delicacies enclosed in cellophane envelopes at the rate of 50 cents each."
